This tour takes us to the three-country corner of Austria, Slovenia, and Italy. Our tour center is located on the Austrian side, in the province of Carinthia, in Kötschach-Mauthen.

We spend the night at the Hotel Erlenhof in the Gailtal. From this beautiful biker hotel we start our day tours and let the evening end in a cosy atmosphere with a multi-course dinner and a drop of wine or a glass of beer.

Our tours take us, among other places, to Friuli, the Italian part of the Julian Alps, to the land of prosciutto - it is said that here you can get the best ham in Italy and to Slovenia, to the area of the Triglav massif, which is still unknown to most bikers.

Of course the well-known Austrian panorama roads such as the Grossglockner High Alpine Road, the Nockalm Road or the Maltatal High Alpine Road should not be missing in our tour planning.

A tour also takes us to the neighbouring East Tyrol, to the Lienz Dolomites and via the Pustertaler Höhenstraße to South Tyrol in the Sesto Dolomites Nature Park.
