Ardeche - Cevennes - Gorges du Tarn! The Cevennes and the entire southern part of the Massif Central are still considered an insider's tip among motorcyclists - and rightly so, it is a motorcycle paradise.

Wild gorges, densely wooded mountains, lovely river valleys and steppe-like plateaus form the backdrop for an à la carte motorbike and leisure experience.

Countless small roads with little traffic lead through this unique, varied and fascinating region. You ride through the longest gorge in France, Gorges du Tarn, over the highest bridge in the world, Millau viaduct. Motorcyclists have long appreciated the superbly quiet roads in the Cévennes and around the Ardèche. Riding yourself to dizziness is a fairly simple exercise here.
