Dates and duration (days)

The Balkans are not easy to describe. Is it a mountain range, a geographical area or is it "only" a term that is currently in vogue? We say he's something of everything.

Contrasts in a small area make this destination so interesting and incomparable.

One thing is for sure: you will be able to answer this question much better after this tour. It will be a journey away from the mainstream and thus perhaps exactly what you are looking for in this day and age.

We ride fantastic motorcycle routes on mainly asphalt roads. It can happen at any time that the road conditions change due to heavy rainfall or thunderstorms. Such unpredictable changes may result in short sections on unpaved roads. A good physical condition is required for this tour, as the route is very demanding. The bike should be in perfect technical condition and the tyres should still have sufficient tread.

Country typical, genuine, authentic

Donkey carts by the roadside, small, seemingly untouched mountain villages and unspoiled nature with a wealth of history - join us on an impressive journey across the Balkans and with it a history that is unique. Kosovo with its blue helmets is part of this tour, as well as the Adriatic Sea with the pearls of the Balkans.

With this tour we open some doors to countries that are a bit different and therefore mysterious. What you can expect on this tour is a wonderful hospitality in each country, modern and typical accommodation, winding side roads and landscapes that are still original and unspoilt.

Whoever makes this journey will be surprised. Not everything is perfect according to German standards, but it is still perfect and if we leave out the German standard for a moment, say YES to typical national conditions, we can look forward to a trip that feels real because it is very close to the life of the people.

Experience a journey through time where past and present collide strongly, countries with a unique history and full of contrasts. Our tour guide has been travelling these countries for many years, it is his 2nd home and he knows the conditions of the countries, the routes and small places where it is worth stopping, which are not in any travel guide and which you will tell about for a long time. All this makes this trip a real experience.

The way is the goal

The meeting point for our tour is in Passau. The evening together gives us the opportunity to get to know the other participants and our tour guide will make you curious about the upcoming tours. Look forward to fantastic tours and lots of new experiences.

The next two days we ride through Austria, past the famous Erzberg to Hungary. These tours will be a mix of small side roads and highway, there are many kilometers ahead of us and the goal is to arrive on the Balkanhabinsel, where the adventure Balkan begins.

Secrets of the Balkans

In the Eisernes Tor nature park, perfect motorbike routes await us between the spectacular cliffs of the Danube basin and the rugged peaks of the Carpathians. Again and again we change between the peaks and numerous lakes. Lake Vlasina is located at an altitude of 1210 m and is surrounded by mountains up to 1875 m high. Here, the borders become blurred and the difference in altitude becomes a minor matter, what counts is the view and it will be unique.

One of the most beautiful routes in the Balkans is waiting for us, the popular panoramic road along the Danube. This route takes us along the Danube on endless curves and the views of the landscape are hard to put into words. White Drin and Black Drin, Lake Scutari, Fierza Reservoir, Tara Gorge, Black Mountains - the names are endless, the landscapes an interplay between mountains, rivers and lakes. We are sure you will like it.

No ifs, no buts.

There are still countries in Europe that sound exotic and the information is sparse. This is exactly what makes a trip so interesting. No matter what you have heard or read, what we can promise with this tour is that nobody will starve, there will be a great hotel room every night and every day of the tour will be a good day.
