Dates and duration (days)

Only 200 km away from Lake Garda, a region that is a real insider tip awaits us here. It is the home of Ferrari and Ducati and it is also the home of Parmesan and Balsamico.

Nowhere are tradition and pleasure so close together as here. Little traffic, endless bends and first-class roads in the hinterland offer everything a motorcyclist could wish for.

Curving paradise Apennines

The Apennines are a 1500 km long mountain range that stretches all the way to the Adriatic coast. The Mediterranean climate combined with fantastic motorcycle routes in an extraordinary landscape makes this tour a special experience and guarantees pure riding pleasure. Dramatic chapters of racing history were written here, stories of glory, sweat and tragedy, most famous for the Mille Miglia disaster. The Passo della Futa is just one of the countless passes that continue to be magnetic attractions for motorcyclists.

Land of engines

Emilia Romagna is the birthplace of Italian cars, of a unique motorcycle culture and is not called "Motor Valley" for nothing. Important names such as Ferrari, Maserati, Lamborghini or Ducati offer here a true treasure trove for lovers of motor sports. Countless museums and collections of the extra class score here with unique exhibits and the legendary race track of Imola is also an important part of this wonderful region.

Land of taste

The inhabitants of Emilia Romagna are carefree, cheerful and a little playful. With their admirable nature, they have created a cuisine that puts everyone in a good mood who takes a little time to enjoy it. It is the region of excellent Parmesan cheese, Prosciutto di Parma, Mortadella and unique Balsamic vinegar. During our stop at a family-run balsamic farm we will get an insight into the traditional production and the subsequent tasting will amaze us all because balsamic is so different and therefore each variety is so unique. It is like a good wine, the longer it matures, the better its taste.

The culinary emblem of this region par excellence is filled pasta in every imaginable variation. Whether tortelloni, tagliatelle or gnocchi, filled with ricotta or fresh herbs, they are always homemade and a true delicacy for every pasta lover.
