Dates and duration (days)

Morocco is "calling" to be discovered, our tour guide has known this country perfectly for 20 years.

Together with him you will experience a journey through a fascinating country, combined with adventure and freedom on 2 wheels, without giving up the usual comfort. There are only a few days in Morocco and unfortunately we will not reach the desert. These will be days that leave a first impression of Morocco and where you can decide if this country is worth another trip. Look forward to varied coastal roads and the Rif Mountains with its narrow mountain roads and numerous curves on well paved roads. Discovering new territory
Morocco is easy to reach via the Strait of Gibraltar, it is 14 km and only 45 minutes ferry crossing that bring us to another world. Look forward to a foreign culture and tradition and with it a first insight into a country with a thousand faces, where time ticks differently.

On small side roads we ride through the sunny hinterland of Andalusia and reach the port of Tarifa, where we cross the Strait of Gibraltar by ferry to cross the border to North Africa in Tangier.

How does it feel? This morning still in Europe and a short time later already in Africa? We think it is an interesting experience, a different culture and yet many things are similar.

Experience with us Rabat, the royal city is the capital of Morocco and at the same time seat of government and residence of the king. There will be enough time to visit together the big souk, the historical monuments and other interesting places in the royal city.

In Chefchaouen we will stay in a cozy hotel and have enough time to visit the old town and then finish the day with a delicious Moroccan dinner.
