from €2,219.00

Dates and duration (days)

Romania is unknown to most motorcyclists and therefore a white spot on the map.

Little is reported about the country, it offers the Carpathians an impressive mountain world with rugged peaks up to 2000 m altitude. Fantastic motorcycle routes over small passes, sporty climbs, and plenty of vertical meters through a wild landscape make this region a real insider tip.

Known for the novel "Dracula" by Abraham Stoker, which has since been widely filmed, many myths entwine around the theme of vampires. But does the vampire really come from Transylvania and what is it about the Dracula myth? One thing is for sure: you will be able to answer this question much better after this tour. It will be a journey away from the mainstream and thus perhaps exactly what you are looking for in this day and age.

We ride fantastic motorcycle routes on predominantly asphalted roads. It can happen at any time that road conditions change due to heavy rainfall or thunderstorms. Such unpredictable changes may result in short sections on unpaved roads. A good physical condition is necessary for this tour as the route is very demanding. The motorcycle should be in good technical condition and the tires should still have sufficient tread pattern.

The way is the goal

The meeting point for our tour is in Passau. The evening together gives us the opportunity to get to know the other participants and our tour guide will make you curious about the upcoming tours. Look forward to fantastic tours and lots of new experiences.

Country typical, genuine, authentic

Original life in small villages and unspoiled nature with its countless flocks of sheep and sometimes bears and wolves - join us on an impressive journey through Southeast Europe and its history and landscapes, which is unique.

They have great names and they will certainly provide a lot of riding fun. On the Transalpina we experience countless curves and fantastic views over the Fagarasch mountains. Spectacular access roads with numerous serpentines and viaducts to the over 2000 m high mountain massifs await us on the Transfagarasan Pass road. It is undoubtedly one of the most beautiful routes in the Carpathian Mountains. Mysterious and different

With this tour, we open some doors to countries that are a little different and therefore also mysterious. What you can expect from this tour is wonderful hospitality in every single country, modern and typical accommodation, winding side roads, and landscapes that are still pristine and unspoiled.

Whoever undertakes this journey will be surprised. Not everything is perfect according to German standards, but it is perfect and let's leave the German standard out, say YES to country-specific conditions, let's look forward to a journey that feels real because it is very close to people's lives.

Our tour guide has been traveling these countries for many years, it is his second home and he knows the conditions of the countries, the routes and small places where it is worthwhile to stop, which are not in any travel guide and about which you will be telling stories for a long time. All this makes this trip a real experience.

Without "if" and "but"

There are still countries in Europe that sound exotic and the information is scarce. This is exactly what makes a journey so interesting. No matter what you have heard or read, what we can promise with this tour is that no one will starve, there will be a great hotel room every evening and every tour day will be a good day.
