

Vosges Mountains France (M-ID: 2355)

from €789.00

Dates and duration (days)

Because it blooms so beautifully everywhere, Alsace is often affectionately called the small garden of France.

Small mountain passes and sharp curves: The gently rolling hills of the Vosges, whose foothills extend into the Rhine plain, offer the finest riding pleasure at up to 1,400 meters above sea level. It is the pretty half-timbered towns and romantic winegrowers' villages between which, on mostly well paved country roads, the combinations of curves alternate just as much as the grape varieties along the way. From the base station in Valff, a cozy, family-run hotel with spa area, you will set off each day without luggage ballast through the "little garden of France", as the Vosges are also called. The motorcycle should be well controlled on these angular routes. This tour is also particularly suitable for pillion riders because of the extensive sightseeing programs that are possible on request. The journey to the base hotel in the French Valff is on your own.

Tour programme:

Day 1: Individual arrival at the base hotel in Valff.

Day 2: Dabo, Graufthal, La Petite-Pierre, Col Du Donon, Odilienberg.

Day 3: Pierre-Percée reservoir, Col de la Chipotte, Col du Haut Jacques and Col de Mandray, Sainte-Marie-aux-Mines.

Day 4: Col de Fouchy, Route des Crêtes, Col de la Schlucht, Grand Ballon and Ballon d'Alsace, Ribeauvillé, Alsace Wine Route.

Day 5: Individual return journey.
