10 days

A round trip in the regions, away from the often ridden destinations of mass tourism, leads us through the Ore Mountains, architecturally and scenically charming valleys and hilly landscapes in the home of Rübzahl...

...past the Schneekoppe through the Altvater Mountains to the southern edge of the High Tatras and in a wide arc along the borders to Poland and Ukraine, where we can enjoy a day of rest north of the Hungarian border or individually insert a side trip to northern Hungary or Romania.

Along the southern border of the Slovak Republic, our journey takes us past Bratislava, through the Waldviertel, Wachau and Mühlviertel regions back via picturesque Krumlov to finish in the Bavarian Forest. Living past and evidence of a changeful history accompany us over the stages of the tour.

Tour route:

Day 1: Arrival at the intermediate hotel.

Departure from the service area Geismühle West via highway and country road to the first hotel in the Ore Mountains. Individual arrival possible.

Day 2: Through the Ore Mountains to the Schneekoppe.

Our first day's stage leads through quiet hilly landscapes of the Ore Mountains, the edge of the Elbe Sandstone Mountains and the northern Czech Republic to the Spindleruv Mlyn area in the catchment area of the Schneekoppe.

Day 3: Off to the Altvater Mountains.

Today our destination is the border area Czech Republic-

Poland-Slovak Republic with the Old Father Mountains and the day's stage ends in the Opava area on the eastern border of the Czech Republic.

Day 4: High Tatras and Slovak Republic.

The third stage also runs along the Polish border and in the south of the High Tatras through the nature park there and the ski resorts in the north of the Slovak Republic.

Day 5: Border areas of Poland, Ukraine and Hungary.

Our longest day's ride is mostly on back roads along the border with Poland and Ukraine to the Kosice area north of the border with Hungary. Lonely landscapes and original villages let us take a step back in time.

Day 6: Rest day.

We have earned a day of rest. For the always hungry riders there is the possibility of a shorter day stage through the border area with Hungary and possibly a detour to Romania.

Day 7

Along the border with Hungary.

We explore the flatter landscape along the border with Hungary and ride to the Nitra area, just before Bratislava.

Day 8: Around Bratislava to Lower Austria.

We circle Bratislava and reach northern Lower Austria with the Waldviertel and Wachau regions, where Austrian cuisine awaits us.

Day 9: Through the Mühlviertel to the Bavarian Forest.

Through the Mühlviertel into the southern Czech Republic we ride along the Vltava River to the picturesque Krumlov before we cross over into the Bavarian Forest and revive the experiences of the tour with a cozy dinner in the Cham area.

Day 10: Journey home.

We start on the fast journey home via the highway to the service area Geismühle. Of course you can also organize your journey home individually.
