As one of the most beautiful natural paradises, the south-east of Bavaria with the bordering Czech Republic and Austria invites us to an unusual motorcycle experience. The border triangle still allows many a deep insight into German-Czech relations in the past.

Welcome to the Bavarian Forest! Our Bavarian curve experience first takes us along winding country roads to the Bad Kötzing area. From the former Luftwaffe telecommunications tower on the Hohenbogen, we have a panoramic view of the seemingly endless forests of Europe's largest contiguous forest area. Of course, we also pay our respects to the highest peak in the Bavarian Forest when we circle the Great Arber.

We have reserved one of our tour days for a trip to the neighboring Czech Republic. The large Vltava reservoir is our destination for the day. The South Bohemian landscape is different in nuances than on this side of the border, but no less beautiful. Our tour guides have chosen the most interesting routes, and there are many opportunities for great snapshots...

Finally, the Austrian Muehlviertel with its unspoiled and varied landscape rounds off our motorcycle vacation. In the three-river city of Passau, we admire the view of the confluence of the Danube, Inn and Ilz from the Oberhaus fortress, while we can enjoy local delicacies.

The start and starting point of our day tours is our family-run tour center at the gateway to the Bavarian Forest. With typical regional dishes we let each of our eventful days come to an end - always in anticipation of the next day!

Program, hotel and route changes are reserved.

Itinerary

Day 1: Welcome to the Bavarian Forest (individual arrival)

Arrival at the tour hotel by 18:00. At dinner we get to know each other and during the subsequent tour briefing we get in the mood for the riding days ahead of us through the Bavarian Forest and the border regions of the neighboring countries.

Overnight stay: Tour center in the front Bavarian Forest

Day 2: Northern Bavarian Forest (approx. 200 km)

The warm-up takes us first to the Bogenberg, which rises above the Danube floodplains. On winding roads we then head up into the Bavarian Forest. We enjoy our lunch with a breathtaking view on the Hohenbogen. Next, we set course for the Great Arber - at 1,456 meters, it is the highest mountain in the Bavarian Forest. After arriving back at our tour hotel, we end the eventful day with a glass of wine.

Overnight stay: Tour center in the front Bavarian Forest

Day 3: To the Lipno Reservoir in the Czech Republic (approx. 340 km)

Today takes us to the neighboring Czech Republic, where we cannot escape the spell of the Šumava National Park. We enjoy the natural low mountain range landscape and maybe grab a souvenir or two in the duty-free stores at the border. From an old oil production tower we have an unforgettable view of the Lipno reservoir and the hinterland. Our further route now runs along the Austrian border for a bit before we return to our "Starting Point".

Overnight stay: Tour center in the front Bavarian Forest

Day 4: Austrian Muehlviertel (approx. 300 km)

Strengthened with a hearty breakfast, we set off through eastern Bavaria to the Upper Austrian Muehlviertel. Here the Danube meanders deeply through the Bohemian massif - an impressive sight. Later, over a cup of coffee, we look down on the three-river city of Passau from above. Further on we follow the unspoiled course of the Danube upstream, which we cross with an old yaw rope ferry. In the early evening we reach our tour hotel again.

Overnight stay: Tour center in the front Bavarian Forest

Day 5: Individual journey home

Once again we have breakfast together, then it's time to say goodbye. On the individual journey home we will be accompanied by our memories of the past tour through Bavaria and Bohemia.
