

Trial riding Toskana (M-ID: 2532)

from €1,350.00

Dates and duration (days)

Within sight of the beautiful provincial capital Siena lies the beautiful estate Viamaggio, a rustic, former farm, in absolutely quiet surroundings, lonely and peaceful on a wild and romantic high plateau.

Guided by experienced tour guides who are familiar with the area, the tour takes you through this region rich in game, where wild boars in particular enrich not only the country menus but also the menus. Narrow valleys alternate here with the wide heights from which one enjoys wonderful views of this romantic and world-famous landscape that inspired so many artists. Some of the trails lead up to the top via Strade bianche, the typical white gravel roads of Tuscany, or via selected single trails through the dense, spicy-smelling maquis. One feels as if one is already far beyond civilization, when suddenly, quite unexpectedly, the view of the skyline of Siena in the far distance becomes clear. But the guides also lead the group through exciting, sometimes seemingly endless creek beds, always responsibly and always adapted to the individual ability, to small, romantic villages with their narrow streets. Here you can enjoy the dolce vita in the small coffee bars, usually in the form of a delicious cappuccino. But our not at all capricious Beta Alp 200, also often called a small tractor because of the impatient, unbreakable, easy to ride Suzuki engine, seems to be nothing too much. Even if it goes after the pleasure of Tuscan delicacies times on a donkey path back to our farm. With her good-natured mule-ish soul they always go easy on the rider, sorry, rider, in any terrain. Heads up! This form of trial enduro hiking can be addictive. Tour progress
