Why not take a short holiday, here in the southern Black Forest, and I promise you, the appetite comes with the food, or rather with the riding . You'll have a hard time riding back home afterwards.

Titisee, Schluchsee and Feldberg are perhaps the best known trademarks of the Southern Black Forest, and are indeed strong tourist magnets. But for the connoisseur, the Southern Black Forest has much more to offer, especially if you are a motorcyclist. Off the beaten track, there are endless winding roads just waiting to be discovered. Small roads and winding forest roads lead to clear heights with wonderful views and vistas. So of course we will stop every now and then to let our eyes feast or to let our photographer's heart beat faster.

At the end of the tour probably only the strained seat meat prevents that withdrawal symptoms appear.

Tour description:

Day 1: Individual arrival in St. Märgen.

If required, pick up of the rental motorcycle, getting to know each other and briefing

Day 2: To the sources of the Danube

Starting at the source of the Brigach, we continue to the Martinskapelle, where the Breg, the second source of the Danube, rises just below the European watershed. Through the Bregtal we reach Donaueschingen, where we have a look into the source of the Danube, the 3rd source of the Danube. Along the river we come to the Danube seepage, where in dry summers the Danube dries up almost completely. Not far away follows the Danube breakthrough with its towering limestone walls. On the way back we visit the largest spring in Germany, the Aachtopf, where the seeped Danube water comes to the surface again. (... approx. 300km)

Day 3: The 8 Thousanders

You won't believe it, 8 thousands in the Black Forest, there are many more. But today we take the most beautiful 8 thousands, or better said, the ones with the most beautiful curves under the wheels! To memorize, learn by heart or just let them melt in your mouth, here they are:

- Belchen 1414m (the most beautiful)
- Blauen 1165m (the most western)
- Feldberg 1493m (the highest)
- Herzogenhorn 1265m
- Schauinsland 1284m (with the dreamlike view)
- Silver mountain 1358m
- Stübenwasen 1386m
- Toter Mann 1321m (the most remote)

To the tour description: curves, curves, view, curves, enjoy, wow! (... approx. 250km)

Day 4: Hegau-Lake Constance and Rhine Falls

After the volcanic landscape of the Hegau we will visit the Swabian Sea, take the ferry from Meersburg to Konstanz, ride along the Gnadensee and Untersee to the picturesque Swiss town of Stein am Rhein. We continue to the imposing Rhine Falls, which invite you to stop. After the grandiose spectacle of nature, we head back to our base hotel. (... approx. 270km)

Day 5: To the Salpeterer in the Hotzenwald

The valleys here in and around the Hotzenwald are wildly romantic, deeply indented, gorge-like forest valleys with steep rock faces and the narrow little roads squeeze along winding between stream and rock face. On the bare ridges you have a wonderful view over the Hochrhein to the Swiss Alps in good weather. (... approx. 270km)

Day 6: Departure day

After about 1000km in the saddle and an appetite for more, it's time to say goodbye and everyone starts their individual journey home. The riders with rented motorcycles ride back to the rental company together.
But Psst, more will not be revealed, so just take a look!
