Allow yourself 5 days and the little everyday escape is perfect. About 800 km biking in the middle and northern Black Forest and the world looks different again.

The Black Forest High Road, Mummelsee and Schwarzenbachtalsperre with their biker hangouts speak for themselves here, as they are the epitome of the northern Black Forest. We will even experience the Kandel, the Hexenloch and a few other delicacies, but that's not all, after all there are still many small roads that are worth exploring.

Tour description:

Day 1: Individual arrival in Appenweiler

If necessary, pick up the rental motorcycle, get to know and briefing

Day 2: Around the Northern Black Forest (valleys, wine and heights)

On the Baden Wine Road we ride via Kappelrodeck, the seat of the Hex von Dasenstein, and the pretty flower, wine and half-timbered village of Sasbachwalden to Baden-Baden, then via the Rote Lache into the Murg Valley to Forbach. Kaltenbronn, Baiersbronn and Freudenstadt, with the largest market place in Germany, are further stops before we reach the Kinzig valley with the half-timbered and tanner town of Schiltach, where it is also worthwhile to stretch your legs. The rafting town of Wolfach is another stop before we cross the Schönberg Pass to Lahr and return along the wine route. (... approx. 240km)

Day 3: Via Allerheiligen to Teufelsmühle

Through the Rench and Lieberbach valleys we come to Allerheiligen with its monastery ruins and waterfall before we reach the Schwarzwaldhochstraße, the first panoramic road that always offers magnificent views of the Vosges and the Rhine plain. The legendary Mummelsee is worth a photo stop, as is the Schwarzenbachtalsperre. On the way to the Teufelsmühle we can also stretch our feet on the short footpath to the Teufelsloch, an interesting rock formation. Passing the Nagoldstausee, we reach Freudenstadt and Bad Rippoldsau to return to our quarters via the Black Forest High Road. (... approx. 240km)

Day 4: Through the Hexenloch to the Hex vom Dasenstein
Today we cross the northern and central Black Forest. Over the Löcherberg, Strittberg and Gscheid we reach Waldkirch, from where we take a highlight, the Kandel from the north side under the wheels. With a dream route we continue, via St. Peter and St. Märgen, with always wonderful views, into the Hexenloch, to Dreistegen. Furtwangen, Prechtal and Wolfach are further stages before we wish the Hex vom Dasenstein a good evening in Kappelrodeck. (... approx. 260km)

Day 5: Departure day

After about 750km of everyday life escape, it is time to say goodbye and everyone starts his individual journey home with new energy. The riders with rental motorcycles ride back to the landlord together.

But Psst, not everything is revealed, so just take a look!
