<https://www.motourismo.com/en/listings/2713-around-the-irish-island-without-guide>

from €945.00

Dates and duration (days)

The partially organised self-drive tour can be booked all year round

Starting at our tourbase at the foot of the Wickow Mountains you will head to Kilkenny, a beautiful historic town with an amazing castle, then stay overnight in the lively City of Cork. In Baltimore, a formerly small fisher harbour, you will enjoy first beautiful views on the Atlantic Ocean. Follow the westcoast to Killarney, where you stay for two nights. Enjoy the amazing Killarney National Park, visit Killarneys places of interest and tour the famous Ring of Kerry - all without luggage. See the historic town of Limerick and see the famous Cliffs of Moher, before diving into the vibrant City of Galway, the gate to Connemara. Head North to the Beautiful County Donegal, see the Selieve Leagues, the highest cliffs in Ireland, cross the stunning Glenveigh National Park and admire the beautiful Fanad Head. Londonderry is an interesting place to see and to reveal some of Northern Irelands younger history. See the Giants Causeway and enjoy the tiny curvy roads at the North Antrim Coast. In Belfast you can visit the Titanic Exhibition and the the Game of Thrones Exhibition. On your way south you will see the gigantic normanic Castle of Trim before returning to our tourbase.

Some highlights of the route:

- The historic city of Kilkenny with its beautiful old town and castle
- The lively city of Cork
- The breathtaking Killarney National Park and the famous Ring of Kerry
- The historic Limerick on the Shannon
- The Troubled Galway
- The lonely beauty of Donegal

- The divided city of Derry/Londonderry with its complete medieval city wall
- The Causeway Coastal Route and the beautiful coast of North-Antrim
- The big cities of Belfast and possibly Dublin on your return journey with many sights
- Mountains and raised bogs, steep cliffs and sandy beaches and many beautiful motorbike roads

This tour format is for all who prefer to chose their overnight stays by themselves, but still like to follow a well prepared and proven route. The entire tour will be preprogrammed to your GPS Sat Nav and you will have a detailed tour description (roadbook) to guide you through the day. You simply book the accomodation to the days destination by yourself
