Always different - that's how the days on this motorcycle tour can be described.

Right at the beginning, the pulsating Sydney fascinates, only a few kilometres later, there is no trace of hustle and bustle in the winding Blue Mountains and the Hunter Valley wine region. The Sunshine Coast around Brisbane is characterised by surfer life, while the wild curves through deep rainforest, the sandy island of Fraser Island and the Great Barrier Reef seem from a completely different world. Come with us and let yourself be inspired by the east coast of Australia!

On this motorcycle tour you will experience the incredible contrasts of the east coast of Australia. Already the first days in the pulsating cosmopolitan city of Sydney are a highlight. Contrast this with the winding roads of the next few days, through the Blue Mountains and into the famous Hunter Valley wine region. Here you will enjoy a wine tasting before the Waterfall Way will fascinate you the next day. In Byron Bay on the Gold Coast, the golden beaches of the Pacific welcome us. These give you a foretaste of the beaches and coasts of the later tour days. Before that we ride through the deep green rainforest of the Great Dividing Range in the interior of northern New South Wales. With the stop in Rainbow Beach we have the opportunity to explore the largest sand island in the world, Fraser Island - as part of a 4-WD tour. Beaches like in the South Seas included! Shortly before the end of the tour, you can visit the enchanting coral reef Lady Elliot Island from Hervey Bay. A small plane takes you to the southernmost island of the Great Barrier Reef, where you can snorkel and experience the underwater world up close on a glass-bottom boat. In Brisbane, the tour ends after 15 days, each one packed with fascinating impressions!
