This motorcycle tour takes us from Johannesburg via Botswana to Zambia and Malawi. You will be amazed at how different Africa can be! And how fascinating.

Impressive cultures and traditions, extraordinary landscapes, highlights like Victoria Falls or the stay in a private game lodge, and always stunning hospitality are waiting everywhere!

On this motorcycle tour, you will experience Africa in a particularly intense way. Deep green landscapes and the steppes of the savannah form an impressive contrast on our relaxed ride to Botswana. In the small African settlements, the children and passers-by wave to us with delight, as we are an unfamiliar sight in their everyday lives. Another highlight is when we stop at a game lodge in Chobe National Park and take part in boat and jeep safaris to see elephants, hippos, giraffes, antelopes, and many other wild animals up close. The very next day it will be spectacular again: you will experience Victoria Falls up close. From the Chimolo Plateau, we look over the Zambezi River before we stop at Lake Malawi. Boat and snorkel tour included!

Immerse yourself in different African cultures, and come with us on this unique motorcycle tour through real Africa.

Itinerary (subject to change):

Day 1: Johannesburg - Arrival
Arrival in Johannesburg and transfer to hotel.

Day 2: Johannesburg - Palapye (490km)
In the morning you take over the motorcycles. From Johannesburg, the tour starts and rides into Botswana.

Day 3: Palapye - Nata (410km)
Today's route to Nata rides us through remote regions and original Botswana. Our accommodation at Nata, a glamping camp is located near a waterhole that is regularly visited by elephants and many other wild animals.

Day 4: Nata - Kasane (260km)
Ride through the eastern part of Chobe National Park to Kasane. It would not be unusual to encounter wildlife here while riding! In Kasane you will join a boat safari across the Chobe River - hippos, buffalos, and elephants are commonly seen.

Day 5: Kasane - Livingstone (100km)
Today starts with a jeep safari through the Chobe National Park - looking for wildlife that is not so fond of water... This is followed by a rather short leg to Livingstone, crossing the mighty Zambezi River.

Day 6: Livingstone - free day (at leisure)
An absolute highlight of the tour is the visit to the famous Victoria Falls - whose roar and spray are always present here. We take a tour of the falls as well as a dinner cruise on the Zambezi River.

Day 7: Livingstone - Lusaka (490km)
From Livingstone, we ride east across the Zambezi River to Lusaka. On the way, we pass numerous villages. After the seclusion of the past days, the big city of Lusaka is a nice change.

Day 8: Lusaka - Chipata (570km)
We ride across the Luangwa River over plateaus and through deep forests before reaching Chipata. The roads are newly repaired, so the ride is easy and the long distance can be managed well.

Day 9: Chipata - Mfuwe (140km)
We ride northwards to the South Luangwa National Park. Here we stay two nights to experience one of the most beautiful national parks in Zambia.

Day 10: Mfuwe - free day (at leisure)

Today an impressive safari is on the program.

Day 11: Mfuwe - Dedza (360km)

Today entry into Malawi via Chipata. Ride through the scenic Golomoti to Dedza. In Malawi, we pass numerous villages and small settlements, along the road the locals often sell charcoal as well as dried tobacco leaves. We share the road with what feels like thousands of cyclists, their bikes packed to incredible proportions.

Day 12: Dedza - Mulanje (320km)

We ride south to the Mulanje region, characterized by agriculture, especially tobacco and tea. 2/3 of the 12 million inhabitants of Malawi try to make a living with it. We spend the night at the foot of the highest mountain in Malawi, Mt. Mulanje (3002m) near the border with Mozambique.

Day 13: Mulanje - Mangochi (300km)

We ride on small back roads until we reach the Shire River. We spend the night on the shores of Lake Malawi, one of the clearest lakes in the world.

Day 14: Mangochi - Salima (at leisure)

The tour takes us back to the Golomoti region, we ride along the shore of Lake Malawi to Salima.

Day 15: Salima - Lilongwe (120 km)

Today we ride further inland to the capital of Malawi, Lilongwe. After returning the motorcycles, PCR test in Lilongwe, valid until the time of return. Afterward, review the many impressions of the "Southern Africa Tour" at the lodge.

Day 16: Lilongwe - Departure

If you have not planned any additional days, you will fly back home from Lilongwe today.
