14 days

Cape Town, the starting and ending point of this journey, is one of the most fascinating coastal cities in the world.

Combine it with the spectacular coastal routes to the stunning Cape of Good Hope, the great coastal villages along the Garden Route, the fun-filled bends through the Great Karoo or Swartberg Mountains and the unique wildlife, and you have the perfect motorcycle holiday!

The tour starts with the enchanting coastal stretches along the Cape region such as Chapmans Peak Drive, the Cape of Good Hope, visits the penguin colony at Boulders Beach and head north along the coast to the popular coastal town of Knysna. At Mossel Bay, the Outeniqua Pass offers not only spectacular motorcycling but also views without words. Along the Garden Route you ride through the Tsitsikamma region, via Plettenberg Bay to Port Elizabeth. In Addo Elephant Park you have the best chance to see the BIG 5 on a jeep safari lasting several hours. The tour continues northwards to Graaff Reinet, one of the oldest towns in the country. The Valley of Desolation awaits you curve after curve with spectacular views. Through the Klein Karoo and the Swartberg Mountains we reach Oudtshoorn, the stronghold of ostrich farming. On a farm you will get a closer look at this. The fantastic Swartberg Pass and the Meiringspoort Gorge are next to be experienced, before endless vastness and wine estates dominate the landscape. Back to Cape Town you ride the R62, the Du Toits Kloof, Franschhoek and Hellshoogte Pass.

Your individual motorcycle tour will be designed especially for you. We will be guided by your date and route wishes. The trip will be calculated and worked out according to the days available to you - please contact us for a tailor-made offer!

The following itinerary is only a suggestion! The exact route for your trip will be worked out and created according to your ideas!

Possible itinerary (changes possible):

Day 1: Arrival in Cape Town

Transfer to the hotel. Depending on the arrival time, you will already gain the first impressions of Cape Town.

Day 2: Day tour around Cape Town, 150 km

First you pick up your motorbike in the morning. Then cruise the Peninsula Route via False Bay and Boulders Beach to the Cape of Good Hope. On Chapmans Peak Drive back to Cape Town.

Day 3: From Cape Town to Cape L'Agulhas, 280 km

Clarence Drive via False Bay takes you to the southernmost tip of the country.

Day 4: From Cape L'Agulhas to Knysna, 400 km

Continue along the coast via Mossel Bay, through the Lakes District to the coastal town of Knysna.

Day 5: Free day in Knysna

Today the very popular Outeniqua Pass and/or Alfred Pass is on the to-do list!

Day 6: From Knysna to Colchester, 250 km

Through the Tsitsikamma region via Plettenberg Bay and through the Nature Valley with countless bends to Port Elizabeth / Colchester.

Day 7: Free day in Colchester

Fascinating jeep safari through the Addo National Park! Charge your camera battery - elephants, buffalos, rhinos, leopards, lions and other "locals" are waiting.

Day 8: From Colchester to Graaff Reinet, 260 km

Enjoy spectacular views in the Valley of Desolation before riding to Graaff Reinet, one of the oldest towns in the country.

Day 9: From Graaff Reinet to Oudtshoorn, 350 km
Back on the motorbike you ride through the bizarre Klein Karoo region and the Swartberg Mountains to the ostrich stronghold of Oudtshoorn. A possible visit of an ostrich farm.

Day 10: Free day in Oudtshoorn, 250 km
The fantastic Swartberg Pass and the Meiringspoort Gorge are on the programme.

Day 11: From Oudtshoorn to Robertson, 330 km
Endless expanses and vineyards as far as the eye can see characterise the landscape along the enchanting Cape Route R62.

Day 12: From Robertson to Franschhoek, 210 km
Through the Great Karoo and over the Baines Kloof Pass, which is also popular with locals, you reach Franschhoek.

Day 13: From Franschhoek to Cape Town, 250 km
Via the Du Toits Kloof Pass and Hellshoogte Pass back to Cape Town. Motorbike return. In case of good weather a visit to Table Mountain is worthwhile.

Day 14: Departure from Cape Town
If necessary, there is still some time for sightseeing in Cape Town before the return flight.
