Even the tour start in the vibrant cosmopolitan city of Sydney is a highlight. Contrast this with the winding roads of the next few days, through the Blue Mountains and into the famous Hunter Valley wine region. Here you will enjoy a wine tasting before the Waterfall Way will fascinate you the next day. In Byron Bay on the Gold Coast, the golden beaches of the Pacific await. These give you a foretaste of the beaches and coasts of the later tour days. Before that, you'll ride through the deep green rainforest of the Great Dividing Range in the interior of northern New South Wales. A stop at Rainbow Beach offers the opportunity to explore the world's largest sand island, Fraser Island, on a 4WD tour. Beaches like in the South Seas included! Further north you will reach the paradisiacal Whitsunday Islands with beaches like in a picture book. Contrast this with the deep green, ancient rainforests of the Daintree Forest, Port Douglas and the Kuranda Forest Reserve, through which you will ride to Cairns in the following days. Cairns is the starting point to the Great Barrier Reef! A boat and snorkel tour to this World Heritage Site will be the crowning glory of your tour!
