from €99.00

Dates and duration (days)

You are not sure if driving on a race track is something for you? You enjoy riding a motorcycle...but heating?

Don't worry: On the race track you don't ride to set new lap or speed records. It's all about pure riding, without the external influences of normal road traffic. Together we will work out the basic rules of riding on the race track. With flag knowledge, overtaking techniques and the normal course of a trackday as well as clarification of all your open questions!

The workshops take place in the morning or afternoon on the training ground in Hildesheim and last about 4 hours including a rich salad buffet and grilled sausages. Throughout the day we have coffee, cake, tea, mineral water as well as muesli bars and fruit available for you.
