4-day trip to a region full of lonely winding roads, castles, fortified towns, and relics of the two world wars.

DAY 1: The meeting point for departure at 9 am is the Maxi Autohof Kirchheim service area at the Grünstadt exit on the A6 towards Kaiserslautern. Through the Nordpfälzer Bergland, we ride into the Hunsrück, down into the Mosel valley, along the Mosel loops, and then over the heights of the Eifel to Vianden. A few more kilometers to the luxurious hotel in the heart of Clervaux - with a large spa area and genuinely excellent cuisine.

DAY 2: Round trip first north to Malmédy, then to the spa town of Spa, on to Dinant with its riverside promenade on the Meuse, and then in a wide arc via Bastogne back to Luxembourg.

DAY 3: Via the idyllic small town of La-Roche-en-Ardennes to the fortress town of the crusader Gottfried von Bouillon. A bit further south into French Lorraine, past the fortress of Sedan to the beautifully restored citadel of Montmédy. The way back leads us via Arlon and past the reservoir of Esch-sur-Sûre.

DAY 4: Via Larochette in the heart of Luxembourg we ride to Echternach at the German border, then along the Sauer river to its mouth into the Moselle at Wasserbillig. Now we ride through the Saarland, the Western Palatinate, and the Palatinate Forest to Bad Dürkheim (approx. 3 pm) for the final dinner. Afterward, the individual journey home.
