Genghis Khan was born in Dadal near to the Siberian border in the north east corner of Mongolia. This is a beautiful area of mountains, forest, lakes and wide rivers.

It is also of immense historical significance and we will visit the places where Genghis Khan lived until he became the leader of his people and moved his capital to Kharkhorin in Central Mongolia.

Apart from the last day of the trip, which is on the tarmac, we follow rough jeep tracks on packed mud or rock all the way. There may be some river crossings (depending on recent weather conditions), although we travel out of our way to find bridges to cross the big rivers. All nights on tour are spent in the wild, camping in tents and we cover a distance of approximately 1300 kilometers in 6 days.

Tour Highlights:

- Silver statue of Genghis Khan on a horse
- Kherlen River
- Birthplace of Genghis Khan
- Nomadic families
- Khukh Nuur "Blue Lake"
- Dadal Village

Itinerary:

DAY 1: Arrive Ulaanbaatar

Arrive in Ulaanbaatar and go to the hotel. Afternoon or evening meet the tour leader and the rest of the group. Start pre-tour meeting. The meeting talks about day-by-day itinerary and safety issues. Overnight in a hotel.

DAY 2: Ulaanbaatar - Khukh Nuur

Set off eastwards towards Khentii Province, stopping for lunch at the huge silver statue of Genghis Khan on his horse. Leave the main black topped road before the village of Tsenkhermandal and ride over the mountains to arrive at the small Khukh Nuur ("Blue Lake") beside which we camp. Overnight camping.

DAY 3: Khukh Nuur - Binder

Ride on rough jeep tracks through silver birch forest and open rocky hilltops through Binder district to an area in the mountains which is an ancient graveyard of Kings, although there is little left to see of it. Overnight camping.

DAY 4: Binder - Onon River

Not far from our campsite are some bronze-age rock paintings which we stop to see before riding on to Bayan Adraga village beside the wide Onon river. Ride through a beautiful forested area and camp before the bridge. Overnight camping.

DAY 5: Onon River - Batnorov

Cross the Onon river near the entrance to Onon-Balj National Park, then ride north a short distance to Dadal village where Genghis Khan was born in 1162. Where his mother's ger once stood there is now a small lake and not far away there is an excellent viewpoint. Ride to Norovliin district to camp.

DAY 6: Batnorov - Jargalant

Ride across the fertile open hills of Batnorov district and through the village to reach Underkhan, the capital of Khentii province located beside the Kherlen River. Overnight camping on a mountainside beyond the town.

DAY 7: Jargalant - Ulaanbaatar

Return to Ulaanbaatar on the good new black paved road, stopping for a picnic lunch along the way. Overnight in a hotel.
