Friuli, Italy's most northeastern region, lies precisely between the sandy beaches of the Adriatic Sea and the southeastern Alps. This then includes the Dolomites and also the visually similar-looking Julian Alps. A bit further north is the Carnic Ridge, which forms the natural border with Austria.

Friuli - Julian Veneto. Our prelude tour to an extraordinary alpine journey. The small Friuli region offers untouched nature in many areas and makes an adventure playground for motorcyclists.

With our adventure bikes, we start unforgettable Enduro tours. These tours offer something for everyone - from wonderful routes through the valleys of the Carnic Alps to some mountain and pass roads, to beautiful views. One of the highlights is the Panoramica delle Vette, one of the most beautiful panoramic roads in the Eastern Alps. The route, which is unpaved in some sections, is not too difficult. Passing alpine pastures, very close to the clouds, the paths wind below the mighty mountains, sometimes crossing the green border to Austria. Lonely mountain roads for explorers and adventurers and never-ending winding roads make this tour a varied experience.

Itinerary:

Day 1: Arrival

The meeting point is our motorcycle house in Hüttlingen (Germany). After a short briefing with butter pretzels and coffee, we start at 7.30 am. We ride mostly on country roads via Austria to our tour hotel in Ravascletto. Other meeting points along the route are possible for participants who do not want to come to Hüttlingen. Individual arrival is possible.

Day 2 and 3: The adventure begins

These days are under the motto: On-/Off Road. Our day tours will lead us to the highlights.

Day 4: Return journey

Journey home. Hard to believe how fast the days go by! Today we, unfortunately, have to start our journey home. The final tour start after a joint breakfast on country roads home. Individual travel home is also possible.

More details

Group size: 6 - 7 motorcycles

Riding ability: A prerequisite for participation is a generally safe control of the motorcycle, also in hairpin turns. Field and gravel roads should be able to be ridden safely.

Daily distances: approx. 120 km to 480 km

Route profile: 60% onroad / 40% offroad

Grouping: with us the riding fun is in the foreground

Tour location: When choosing accommodation, we leave nothing to chance. Motorcycle-friendly hotels with upscale comfort and the quality of the cuisine are important to us. Enjoy the typical cuisine of the country, relax in the spa and wellness area before we leave for another day of riding fun.

Hotel La Perla: Pretty, homely and elegant, completely immersed in the Carnic Alps, at the foot of the small steep roads that lead up to the village, lies the hotel-restaurant "La Perla", which welcomes its guests in a familiar and cozy atmosphere. Hotel La Perla awaits you in Ravascletto, in the heart of Carnia and at the foot of the Zoncolan, in a privileged position. A green heart and mountainous area of Friuli, this area is an unspoiled corner to be discovered. It is still unknown to the masses. The Friulan Alps are a large area that includes the Carnic Alps and the Julian Alps and is mainly located in the province of Udine. Thanks to its natural parks and large forest areas, this corner in the northeast of the country can be called the "Canada of Italy".
