Did you know that Western Australia is the largest state in Australia?

Most residents live in Perth, of course, and enjoy countless dream beaches, secluded bays and fun-filled motorcycle routes from here!

From Perth you will discover the southwest of Australia. You'll quickly see why the city by the sea regularly ranks among the cities with the highest quality of life.

After picking up your motorcycle, you will start northwards, always following the coast of the Indian Ocean to Cervantes. Many small coastal towns and beautiful beaches line your way, inviting you to linger - and "downshift"... The inland route through the Namming Nature Reserve brings you back to the south of Perth. To reach your next stop, the popular coastal town of Busselton, you either ride many winding roads through the interior or along the coast again. "Wow" effects abound on both options! To end the day, enjoy the excellent wines from the region around Margaret River! The next stage offers countless bends through the deep green forests of several state & national parks as well as charming coastal towns. The last leg back to Perth takes you to the salt lakes in the Flagstaff Nature Reserve and through the vastness of the Youraling State Forest.

The following itinerary is only a suggestion! The exact route for your trip will be tailor-made according to your ideas!

Possible itinerary (changes possible):

Day 1: Arrival in Perth

Arrive during the day, getting to know the city on the Indian Ocean. You'll quickly discover why Perth is regularly ranked at the top of cities with the highest quality of life.

Day 2: From Perth to Cervantes, 230 km

The day begins with the motorcycle pick-up. You will then cruise north, following the Indian Ocean coastline to Cervantes. Many small coastal towns and beautiful beaches line your way, inviting you to linger - and immediately "downshift"!

Day 3: From Cervantes to Fremantle, 200 km

To get back south to Fremantle, you ride the inland route today, through the Namming Nature Reserve and the Moore River National Park.

Day 4: From Fremantle to Busselton, 300km

Your next destination, the coastal town of Busselton sits on the edge of one of Australia's best wine growing regions, Margaret River. No wonder the region is one of the top destinations for Perth residents. For the ride there, choose between the impressive coastal road or the more winding inland route on the edge of the Youraling State Forest. In the evening you should still take time to walk along the 2km (!) long pier.

Day 5: From Busselton to Pemberton, 200 km

Again you are spoilt for a choice: take the impressive coastal road or the inland route through Billiger National Park to Pemberton. Whichever you choose, it will be an impressive day.

Day 6: Pemberton to Albany, 250km

First you ride through Mt Frankland National Park today. After 130 winding kilometres through deep green forests of majestic giant eucalyptus trees, you will reach the "Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk" - and can see from high above what natural spectacle you have just ridden through! The next few kilometers will take you along the coast of the Great Australian Bright to Albany.

Day 7: From Albany to Perth, 420 km

The ride back north is comparatively unspectacular,

although it does offer a scenic feature in the form of detours to the salt lakes. In the afternoon, return of the motorcycle. In the evening, if necessary, return/onward flight from Perth.
