Sydney ... this name alone awakens wanderlust and promises great things!

This 7-day motorcycle tour around the famous metropolis has much more in store for you: contrasting landscapes, majestic mountain worlds, coastal roads with a "wow" effect, and outstanding motorcycle routes of every kind! And with this variety, it is guaranteed to deliver what it promises - experience it for yourself!

Before you get on your motorcycle, let yourself be inspired by one of the most exciting cities in the world. Sydney offers besides the famous landmarks Opera House and Harbour Bridge countless sights and special features: characterful districts, great beaches, an impressive Botanical Garden, and favorite places like Circular Quay, Darling Harbour, Manly, or Bondi Beach. But just a few kilometers on the bike will take you into the heart of the Blue Mountains, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Bend after bend, you'll be treated to breathtaking scenery. Countless waterfalls line the way, and famous rock formations like the Three Sisters and the view over the deep gorges of the second-largest canyon in the world want to be discovered. Wind through Wollemi National Park on small, winding roads into the Hunter Valley. The landscape here is dominated by wine-growing - no wonder you find world-famous wineries here! The Waterfall Way on the way to Armidale lives up to its name, the ride through the deep green rainforest is in stark contrast to the golden beaches and deep blue ocean you reach shortly after. You follow it southwards, past Port Macquarie, home to many koalas, back to Sydney.

Highlights: Southern Coast, Kangaroo Valley, The Blue Mountains, The Hunter Valley

The following itinerary is only a suggestion! The exact route for your trip will be tailor-made according to your ideas!

Suggested itinerary (changes possible):

Day 1: Arrival in Sydney

Arrival during the day. Whether you start by seeing the Opera, take a harbor tour, sit in a café in "The Rocks" district or stroll through the Botanical Gardens: Sydney will captivate you in no time - the city is simply fascinating, diverse, and unique.

Day 2: From Sydney to Kangaroo Valley, 180 km

Your motorcycle tour begins with the motorcycle pick-up. To get to your destination for the day, take the long route, south along the coast and Lawrence Hargrove Drive. You will also cross the Sea Cliff Bridge, which offers spectacular views! There are numerous coastal towns to stop at before turning inland to Kiama. The curves through Budderoo National Park will make your helmet shine again before you arrive in the Kangaroo Valley.

Day 3: From Kangaroo Valley to the Blue Mountains, 170km
On we go, it remains curvy today! Keep your camera ready as you ride over Hampden Bridge. The small, unpaved back road through Mares Forest National Park is super twisty but also takes more time. It will continue to be twisty as you ride over Mt Trickett and admire the spectacular views along the Great Dividing Range.

Day 4: From the Blue Mountains to Hunter Valley, 400km
Today you'll ride through the Blue Mountains - a UNESCO World Heritage Site! You'll know why after just a few kilometers...Your destination today: the famous Hunter Valley wine region. Your route choice: the curves through Wollemi & Yengo National Park via Mellong and Howes Valley, on a paved road. Or even more, curves while riding via St. Albans and Bucketty, with different road surfaces. You're guaranteed to have ridden plenty of bends by the end of the day. And enjoyed spectacular views. Why not finish off with a glass of the region's excellent wine?

Day 5: Hunter Valley to Armidale, 300km

A little more relaxed in terms of curves is the ride through New England to Armidale. But no less impressive! The dense deciduous forests of the region captivate in spring with lush green and in autumn with a colorful mixture of colors a la "Indian Summer".

Day 6: From Armidale to Port Macquarie, 300 km

Waterfall Way - this is the highlight of the day! The SH78 has not been given this name without reason, before you arrive back at the shore of the South Pacific in the afternoon, you will have passed several large and small waterfalls. This stage also offers epic views over the New England National Park and the impressively dense, deep green rainforest.

Day 7: Port Macquarie to Sydney, 400km

The last 400km of this tour component takes you south along the coast. You can take detours from the A1 every now and then, whether riding along a small road right next to the sea or curving inland on one. Depending on when you arrive in Sydney, you will have time to experience the special atmosphere of the city again after returning the motorcycle. If necessary, return/continued the flight from Sydney.
