New Years on the plaza will be a night to remember.

This Mexico tour is designated LIGHT ADVENTURE, only due to foreign riding conditions. It is a ROAD TOUR meaning the route is entirely on paved roads of varying quality and is perfectly suited for singles or couples who have prior road touring experience. With convenient flights available into the Central Mexico city of Queretaro, you will land in the heart of the country's charming Bajio region known for historical European and early Spanish Colonial influences.

This tour is similar to our Colonial Mexico tour with minor itinerary changes to accommodate the colorful New Year celebrations in San Miguel de Allende. As well, conditions permitting, a visit to the world-renowned Monarch Butterfly Sanctuary, adds to an already exciting riding event.

Highlights:

- San Miguel de Allende has gained international prominence, awarded the most desirable city in the world by readers of Travel & Leisure Magazine. Its Colonial flare and reputation as an art community and zealously maintained Old World style will enchant you. New Year on the plaza will be a night to remember.

- Patzcuaro is one of our longtime favorite Colonial-era towns. With its quaint sprawling plazas, native Tarascan influences, and the legendary lake, you will find today's ride along back roads well rewarded once you arrive at this destination, staging you for one of Mexico's greatest motorcycling (and Carrera Panamericana Race) roads.

- Mil Cumbres. It means Thousand Peaks. For motorcyclists, it is one of the top five riding roads in Mexico along the old Highway 15 through the state of Michoacan.

You will see why it is legendary among racers of the La Carrera Panamericana vintage car race, one of the few remaining open road races in the world.

- The Monarch Butterflies. This preserve in the highlands of Michoacan attracts many millions of these creatures, flying and floating upwards of 3,000 miles each autumn from the USA and Canada, only to return northward in the spring. You will witness an amazing cycle of nature.

- Queretaro offers convenient flights from major USA hubs, landing you in the heart of Mexico not wasting any time getting you to the best riding.
