Corsica - its breathtaking landscapes and paradisiacal beaches make the "Island of Beauty" one of the most popular destinations in France.

The majority of the island consists of mountainous terrain. 50 peaks rise over 2,000 meters into the sky, and where there are mountains, there are of course plenty of winding roads.

A paradise for motorcyclists and one of the most beautiful islands in the Mediterranean!

Corsica is a paradise for motorcyclists! With countless ingenious curves, great coastal roads, and serpentine pass routes with breathtaking views, there is something for everyone: from the expert to the pleasure rider to the curve collector! Steep coastal and bombastic panoramic routes make every biker's heart beat faster. The number of kilometers of curves on narrow back roads is endless and at the end of each tour, we can enjoy the experiences of the day.
