<https://www.motourismo.com/en/listings/4031-supermoto-camp-villars>

from €159.00

Dates and duration (days)

A five-kilometer enduro track, a world championship-tested motocross track, an internationally renowned supermoto track, and plenty of space for trial sections in between - all this comes together in Villars, France, to form a multifunctional motorsport facility.

The four-day event is divided into two sections.

On the first two days (Thursday/Friday) the courses take place, on the two following days (Saturday/Sunday) the free riding. Courses and free riding do not have to be combined but can be booked separately for all participants.

The courses are divided into performance groups. The course covers basic knowledge, individual advice and remedies for riding weaknesses, as well as instruction on how to improve riding style. The group size is at the Supermoto course there are a maximum of 20.

In the trial course, two different performance groups are formed, each with a maximum of six participants. As far as the instructors are concerned, international off-road celebrities traditionally do the honors in Villars. After the two days of instruction, the curtain will finally rise on the second part of the event: free riding on all tracks (except trials). There will be three (Supermoto) performance groups.

In addition to drifting on the asphalt track, the Supermoto section is also free to go off-road.
