This training is for all those who want to train differently. You will not train as usual on the course, but where you also ride - on the road.

- Getting to know different curve styles
- Getting to know different braking techniques

On selected road sections around Garmisch-Partenkirchen, we will analyze your cornering in different curves and refine it with you via continuous feedback to expand your comfort zone. Learn to ride your bike safely through the curves, under expert guidance. With new insights into riding physics, safer into the curve, through the curve, and out of the curve.

Suitable for:

- beginners
- returning riders
- occasional riders
- veterans
