Description:

You start your machine, fold down the visor and the sightseeing tour begins.

Roads with little traffic, impressive scenery, and sweeping curves quickly make the pent-up stress of everyday life disappear and with every turn, you experience the feeling of lightness and freedom in the midst of the Upper Bavarian Alps.

A small toll road takes you past the Walchensee, beautifully situated between the mountains, and on into the idyllic high valley of Jachenau.

Briefly, the Isar accompanies you downstream to the old rafting town of Bad Tölz. On further small paths and roads, you will experience a true flood of positive feelings of happiness, such as the breathtaking view over Lake Starnberg during the lunch break.

Afterward, in addition to very interesting sections of the route, a few beautiful photo motifs await you, such as the world-famous Andechs monastery or the earth station in Raisting, which is known for its parabolic antennas that can be seen from afar. The following Hohe Peißenberg at 988m gives you a particularly enchanting view of the Alps.

A small path leads you through the mystical-looking Ammergauer Hochmoor. The Ettaler Berg, which follows shortly thereafter, with its curves and hairpin bends, is the crowning glory of this panoramic tour with its numerous views and impressions.

Around 6:00 p.m. you will be able to review what you have experienced at the hotel.
