3-day training and adventure tour

Portugal is one of the most Enduro friendly countries in the world. Blue skies, sunny days, and thousands of dirt roads crisscrossing this peaceful country in all directions.... and the food? The food is better than good! Together with our resident trainer and guide, enjoy a 3-day adventure designed for anyone who wants to improve their off-road skills and apply them on Portugal's many trails.

Day 1: Training (approx. 60 km)

After all participants are briefed and equipped, we will ride over very easy off-road trails to a nearby forest where we will spend the rest of the day learning the most important off-road basics you will need for the upcoming adventure. We can't give you all the details here, but we can give you an idea of what you will learn:

- Tricks for maneuvering the motorcycle in tricky situations.
- Body positioning and traction theory
- Slow turns and techniques for avoiding obstacles.
- Clutch and balance exercises
- Emergency braking
- Powerslides and elephant turns

At the end of the day we will ride back to the hotel together for dinner to end the day.

Day 2: The adventure begins! (150 - 200 km)

We head west towards the Serra de Aire mountain range along one of our favorite trails. Staying true to the training theme of this tour, we will stop from time to time to learn new techniques or how to overcome certain obstacles. After a short stop at the 800 year old salt mine of Rio Maior, we will ride high up the mountain, along wind farm trails with amazing views, and continue on the other side towards the ocean. Depending on the season, we can go to Peniche and S.Martinho or to Nazaré, beautiful and famous coastal towns known for their surf scene and relaxed atmosphere. At the end of the day we will go back over the mountains to the starting point of Santarém.

Day 3: We bet you're hungry for more now (150 - 200 km)

Today we head east, to the wide plains of the Alentejo, where the tracks are fast and open... , at least some of them. Our journey takes us to great places like the bucolic river town of Constância and to the epic Almourol Castle, built on a tiny island, in the middle of the Tagus River. We end the day around 5pm in Santarém, return the bikes to the parking lot and organize the necessary transfers to take everyone to their next destinations.

This is our basic package for a long weekend of training and riding. For those who want to extend their experience in Portugal, we suggest a few extra days with us. There are so many routes that lead to so many great places that we just want to share them with you! You can easily add extra days during the booking process.

More details

For your most comfortable arrival and departure you have the possibility to rent one of our Honda CRF300L Dual-Sport Enduros, which are in perfect condition, for a small rental fee. Please note the extras when booking, there you will also find the different prices. If you prefer to bring your own bike instead, visit our FAQ section to make sure your enduro meets all the requirements for this tour.

For your own safety, you must always wear a helmet, knee and elbow pads, chest protector, gloves, motorcycle jacket or jersey, goggles and sturdy enduro or motocross boots during our enduro tours. For this you can bring your own protective equipment or borrow it from us for a small extra charge.

We will be happy to organize this tour on your desired date. The best time to travel to Portugal is between September and June.

In accordance with §651r of the German Civil Code (BGB), you will receive a travel price confirmation certificate from us immediately after completing your reservation, which secures the travel price paid by you in the event of our insolvency.

The minimum number of participants for this tour is one person.
