Ready for a motorcycle tour to really see what this special part of Colombia has to offer?

Welcome to the adventure sports capital of Colombia! Situated on the plateau above the Chicamocha Canyon (the second largest canyon in the world), San Gil is the perfect launching point for exploring the endless twisty paved roads and hidden, gravel trails around the area.

Away from the canyon, the area is home to an incredible geological diversity, with numerous caves to explore, waterfalls to splash in, and rivers to float down. It really is an outdoor, adventure-lovers paradise.

Over three action-packed days of riding you will dig below the surface to see not only world-class landscapes and riding trails, but a beautiful and rich culture unique in all of Colombia. This 3-day, mixed-terrain adventure will offer you a huge variety of riding experiences. From shallow river crossings to traversing enormous canyon ridges, this will be one to write home about.
